

Frank D. Allred

Franklin Don Allred, 94, died at his home in Salt Lake City on October 27, 1995, of causes incidental to age.

Born December 2, 1900 in Walsburg, Utah to Franklin McKenzie and Polly Bigelow Allred. He was raised and educated in Walsburg, Utah. He moved to Stockton, California, where he began his lifelong work in the furnace and heating business. In later years he established a partnership with his brothers, Allreds Inc., a wholesale heating supply co., in Murray, Utah. He married Ann Greer in Salt Lake City, Utah, July 7, 1930. She died November 4, 1963.

He loved fishing, hunting and the great outdoors and was an avid gardener. He was very loyal and loving to his family and friends. He is survived by three children: daughters, Edie A. Bredenbaugh and Jean A. (Reed) Goodard; son, John Franklin (Susan) Allred, all of Salt Lake City; 7 grandchildren; 6 great-grandchildren; two brothers, Daniel F. (Lois) Allred, of Salt Lake City; and George B. (Thelma) Allred, of Lehi, Utah. Preceded in death by his parents, two brothers and four sisters.

Gravestone services will be held Monday, October 30th, 1:00 pm, Latkin Sunset Lawn Cemetery, 2350 East 1300 South. Friends may call the Latkin Sunset Lawn Mortuary from 12-4 pm, prior to services. In lieu of flowers, please make contributions to Hospice of Utah or your favorite charity.

JAMES FRANKLIN ALLRED
AND JENNIE THOMPSON
McKENZIE

James Franklin Allred was born November 22, 1832, in Monroe, Clay County, Missouri or New York (not sure), a son of Martin Carrol Allred and Polly Heskett. He married Jennie Thompson McKenzie July 1, 1860. She was born 29 February 1832, in Edinburgh, Scotland.

James died November 11, 1923, and Jennie died April 15, 1924. Both are buried at Wallsburg.

In early times his ancestors went by the name of Aldridge, but they changed their name to Allred.

Mr. Allred owned the first store in Wallsburg. He was a farmer and did some logging on the side.

He was an Indian War veteran.

Their little daughter, Clara, three years old, was the first child to die in Wallsburg. Their son Franklin McKenzie was born in the Wallsburg fort.

Their children are: Lily Theresa, Clara, James Morlin, Jane Alice, Robert Burton, Franklin McKenzie, Amberzine, George Waston, Nora, and Albert.
